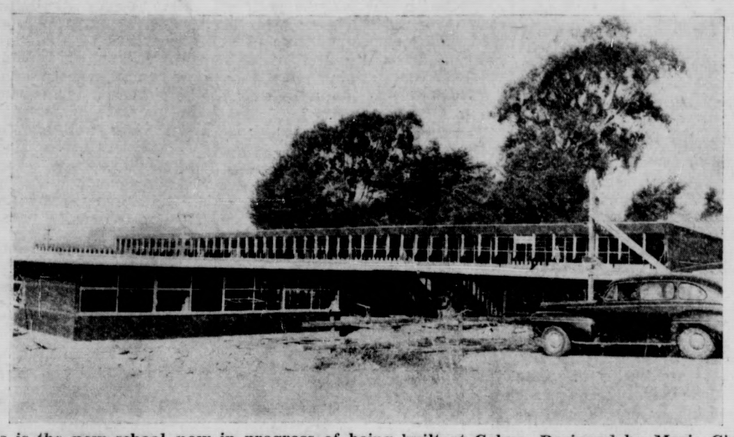
PUBLISHED THURSDAY | DALY CITY, SAN MATEO COUNTY, CALIF., THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 21, 1950 | VOLUME 47, NUMBER 34



This is the new school now in progress of being built at Colma. Designed by Mario Ciampi, the building incorporates all the modern features so sadly lacking in many of the present Daly City schools. When this building is completed early next year it will take some of the load off the other Daly City schools. However, this is only a beginning. Some 64 new classrooms are needed if swing shift education is to end in Daly City. Whether or not these classrooms are built is up to you. Only by voting "yes" at the school bond election September 29 will the new schools be constructed.
(Picture made possible by Mike Callan, school board trustee)

LET'S FINISH THE JOB

Last November the voters of California and the local school district overwhelmingly approved a state bond issue for 250 million dollars for the purpose of providing funds for school districts needing more classrooms than local tax resources could raise. The intent of the law thus created and the intention of local voters who participated in the approval were the same, to make it possible for our local schools to build sufficient classrooms for our rapidly expanding school population.

The job, however, is only half finished as the law provided that to share in the funds, set up by the sale of state bonds, local school districts must do two things.

*First, the voters of the district must, by a two-thirds majority, approve local bonding to the legal maximum.

Secondly, the voters must, also by a two-thirds majority, approve the loan from the state of the additional amount necessary to finance the buildings.

At the special school election on September 29, local voters will have the opportunity of completing the job started last November.

The Record is convinced that our children are entitled to full day schooling and that to provide sufficient classrooms for this purpose it is imperative that local voters overwhelmingly approve both proposition A and B on the ballot.

We call on you to finish the job.

*(Voters of the district approved bonding to what was then the legal limit in 1947. However, an increase in assessed valuation of more than three million dollars during the past three years has made it necessary to re-approve this proposition.)

EAGLES SHOW INTEREST IN SCHOOL BONDS

Hear Local Speaker Tell Necessity For All To Vote "Yes"

Favorable response by the local Eagles on the School Bond propositions to be voted on at the special election on September 29 was noted today following a presentation of the local issues by Robert McKay, representative of the California Teachers' Association and a resident of Daly City. The presentation occurred at the regular meeting of Aerie No. 1848, Colma-Vista Grande lodge held on Thursday, September 14.

McKay, who worked closely with the State Legislature in passage of the state bond issue and other state sponsored school building assistance programs, pointed out to the local lodge that in order for the Jefferson District Schools to receive their share of State financing voters must approve both proposition A and proposition B on the ballot. Commenting on the traditional interest of the Fraternal Order of Eagles in child welfare and public education, McKay called upon the members and their friends to again demonstrate this interest by an overwhelming approval of the school bond proposals.

"Let there be an end to swing-shift education in Daly City," he urged. "We cannot afford to ration a commodity so precious as our children's future."

City May Add Fluorides To Local Drinking Water

Possibility that Daly City may decide to add fluorides to the city's drinking water was under consideration this week after Mayor Paul Green received such a suggestion in a letter from Mrs. Cecil Saarinen. Scientists have reported that fluorides help to harden children's teeth and guard them against decay.

The mayor has requested Dr. Harold Chope, county health director, to prepare a report and survey the possibilities of adding the substance to the drinking water supply.

Council To Open Bids For Impvt. Of Marchbanks Park

Final improvements to the development of Marchbanks Park will be in order next Monday when the city council opens bids for the paving of play areas and walks on the middle and upper levels of the park.

After the paving is completed, play equipment will be installed, according to Recreation Director Elman J. Rose.

Tanbark and sand areas have already been furnished in the small tots area on the middle level, but it was decided to delay installation of play equipment until after the paving is done.

The middle level will have a large lawn area, swings and slides in tanbark, a sand play area and a picnic area with facilities for barbecue.

AMERICAN LEGION ENDORSES SCHOOL BONDS PASSAGE

Unanimously Support Passage of Bonds

At their regular meeting of September 14 the Daly City Post 410 of the American Legion unanimously passed a resolution in support of both propositions on the ballot at the special school election to be held on September 29. The resolution as adopted called upon Legionnaires and the voters of the district to support the proposals and pointed out that one of the basic principles of the American Legion is the provision of adequate schooling and child welfare services.

Commenting on the endorsement, Walter Rector, commander of the local post, stated, "Without adequate schooling we cannot hope that our boys and girls will be able to take their rightful place in community and national citizenship and without sufficient school facilities, adequate schooling is impossible. The Legion," he continued, "stands now and has always stood for support of the public schools. I call on all Legionnaires and their friends to demonstrate this belief by voting in favor of propositions A and B at the special school election."

The action of the Legion followed a presentation of the school situation and plans by School Superintendent James L. Snell.

A copy of the resolution follows:

"Whereas the American Legion is an organization dedicated to the principles of community and civic betterment and whereas the boys and girls of our comunity are in need of additional school facilities to restore the schools to full-time and eliminate 'split-shift' education and whereas the special school election on Friday, September 29, affords the community the opportunity for providing those needed facilities:

"Therefore Be It Resolved That the Daly City Post 410, American Legion, hereby endorses the action of the Board of Trustees in calling for a bond issue for school building purposes and urges the voters of the District to signify their approval at the polls."

EAGLES AUXILIARY SPONSORS BIG "C" DRIVE IN DALY CITY

The Community Chest drive in Daly City has just received a tremendous boost from those "always willing to help a good cause" ladies in the Eagles' auxiliary.

Mrs. Lorraine Gardner, soft-spoken president, informs us that her group is wholeheartedly sponsoring the "Big C" in both word and "work"!

"Eagles, as individuals, have always helped the Chest in the past and will continue to do so in the future. This year we have voted to sponsor the drive as a group — and when we sponsor anything we do it all the way! Our Auxiliary was formed for the purpose of being active and helpful in community projects and we know that the Community Chest comes under that heading. We will do our best!"

Thinking over the club's past record — yes, like that wonderful fashion tea on September 16 — we come up with prize-winning floats, successful food sales and goodness knows what! The record is a full one and the Chest is most grateful to be added to it. Thank you, Eagles Auxiliary, for your most welcome help.

Hamric States Used Car Buying Still In "High"

The new regulations pertaining to the purchase of used cars will have very little effect on sales, according to Bryan Hamric, head of the motor firm bearing his name at 5199 Mission street.

"There are at least two very good reasons for that assertion," explained Bryan. "First, there will be more money available because of the greater employment and secondly, most folks feel they must have their own means of transportation.

"As to the former, there not only will be more money earned, but steady work is virtually assured for some time to come. In fact, several years.

"That should mean credit applications will run into very little difficulty in the matter of approval during the present and immediate future.

"Regarding the latter, the large majority believe that a car is a necessity, if they can afford one. That applies especially to the Mrs. and the kids."

Turning to the reaction on his lot, Bryan said that the number of prospective purchasers had not dwindled since the one third down payment went into effect.

"Moreover," he said "it was remarkable to note that just about everyone came prepared to place a substantial sum to consumate a deal. Evidently most all have read the newspapers.

"Of course, it is wise to point out that our policy is to have a car that will fit every budget. If, for instance, a youth has very little cash to put up, we have cars to fit that purse."

Bryan added that still another factor—the problem of getting good used cars enters the picture. He said that the tightening of new production means many owners are hanging on to what they have.

BOOTH AND CONCESSION CHAIRMEN MAKE PLANS FOR A "HIGH TIME" AT OLPH CARNIVAL IN OCTOBER

With only three weeks to go until the Carnival of Nations will be presented by Our Lady of Perpetual Help Church, the chairmen of the various booths and concessions met in order to plan a most enjoyable affair for all.

The Carnival will be held, in case you have forgotten, October 13, 14 and 15 in the Parish Hall at 80 Wellington avenue. It will start at 7 o'clock Friday night, open at 6 o'clock Saturday night, at 1 p. m. Sunday and continue until everyone goes home some time Sunday night.

All kinds of awards will be given, including several cash awards on down to an order for a pair of shoes. Admission to the Carnival is free.

Refreshments will be available and will feature hot casserole dishes, salads, hot dogs, coffee, soft drinks, ice cream, home made cakes and delicious home-made apple pies.

Right from Holland will be Mrs. Elinor McDougal with her adorable little dolls. Mrs. McDougal and her helpers are dressing hundreds of these tiny dolls which have delighted so many little girls in the past. Mrs. McDougal will be assisted by Mrs. Mary Thiebaut, Mrs. Marina Ciatarria, Mrs. Eda Bonini, Mrs. Dorothy Stewart and Mrs. Genevieve Dinsmore.

Representing Scotland will be Mrs. Milan Stanley in the candy booth. She will be assisted by Mrs. Dorothy Brush and Mrs. Esther Nolan and Mrs. Joanne Sturdevant.

Sombreros and serapes will let you know that Mexico is represented by Mrs. Emilia Garcia in the grocery booth. Mrs. Ruth Cresta will assist her.

An Italian flower booth will be staffed by Mrs. Alma Garibaldi as chairman, assisted by Mrs. Theresa Sullivan and Mrs. Jennie Johnson.

Mrs. Catherine Ricci and Mrs. Janet Fellman will be in charge of the panda bear booth. Just what connection panda bears have with China is anyone's guess, but Chinese this booth will be, with Miss Leona Fellman and Mrs. Ann Drury assisting.

Bob Lucier and Bob Crocker (Before and After) will have a couple of Swiss yodelers in the ham booth. They have promised a yodel with every winner.

Spain will be represented by Caballero Bill Whalen who is chairman of the sports booth, and since no carnival in this community would be right without

City Officials Make Tour Of P.G.&E. Steam Plant

A group of city officials and prominent residents were the guests of the Pacific Gas and Electric Co. Wednesday on an inspection tour of the company's new $51,000,000 steam generating plant at Moss Landing. The group boarded a special train at Third and Townsend streets and rode directly to the 257-acre site on the shore of Monterey Bay. Two hundred and fifty persons from San Francisco and San Mateo counties made the trip.

The new plant takes oil from tankers 3,500 feet offshore in the Bay and converts it to more than 400,000 horsepower in steam turbines for conversion into electric energy.

Making the trip from Daly City were Ernie Rutter, local P. G. & E. office manager, Building Inspector George Hopman, Fire Chief Elmer Kennedy, Judge Wm. J. Sweeney, Water Chief A. J. Bodien, Councilman A. J. Gaggero and Mayor Paul Green.

Deputy Sheriff "Impounds" Seven Punch Boards

The answer to this yarn is, eliminate feuds.

It seems that Arthur Gilleland and wife Anna, who run the Beacon Cafe in Colma, were making with the words when the gendarmes were called to quell the outburst.

But instead of moving right in on the hot debate, the law minions cast a sharp eye over the paraphernalia at hand. They discovered seven punchboards and four bingo pulls.

They latched onto the lottery devices, together with the prizes, a television set, a fishing rod, a number of cigarette lighters, and three boxes of mechanical "trained seals."

Deputy Sheriff Walter Moore said that lottery charges will be filed against the Gillelands.

Then he turned to the "family argument." Mrs. Gilleland was advised to see a lawyer.

Daylight Savings Time Ends On Sunday Morning

Daylight Saving Time ends Saturday night! The highly controversial clock twisting means that everyone will gain an extra 60 minutes at the witching hour of 2 a. m. Sunday.

It'll be a big boon for party throwers. When Big Ben booms twice on Saturday night they can hurl the hands back an hour and start all over.

Again, the change will prove a boon for the sleepy heads. For them, the best thing to do is turn the time piece back before retiring and then snooze that extra hour.

Westlake Improvement Club Asks For Bus Service

Public transportation for Westlake is now on the agenda of the Westlake Improvement Club and if all goes according to plan, it won't be long before buses are running through the smart development.

Harry Bosberry, secretary, declared that his group has petitioned both the Greyhound lines and the Municipal Railway Co. to operate buses to and within the "home beautiful" tract.

Presently, all residents are required to rely on their own vehicles. But that situation is due for a change, according to Harry Bosberry.

More Jobs Open In This Area

There will be more jobs in this area in construction, defense work and the services and retail trades, according to word from the San Mateo office of the state department of employment.

The upturn already has started, it was revealed by the monthly survey. This is divulged partly by unemployment claims. The total of 853 in July has dropped to 703 in August, with the trend continuing downward.

The report said that construction remains the larger employer in this area, but significant gains in light manufacturing were registered, particularly in electronics and the sheet metal industry.

The greatest demand by business is for skilled clerical workers, mainly women, with some seasonal increase for sales people.

Floyd D. Granger Tells Capabilities Of Disabled Vets

Now, more than ever, is the time for employers in San Mateo county to consider the advantages of hiring the physically handicapped, particularly disabled veterans, in the opinion of Floyd D. Granger, veterans service officer.

"My day-to-day work brings me into contact with most of our disabled ex - servicemen," Granger said. "Many of them have undergone first-class training under governmental supervisio nfor skilled jobs, and those who have found suitable employment are proving to be among the most valuable and productive workers their employers have."

He pointed out that while the week of October 1-7 has been set aside as National Employ the Physically Handicapped Week, the efforts of those who know the advantages of hiring the handicapped go on all year round. NEPH Week is regarded as an annual climax to this continuous campaign, a time when the nation is reminded that the handicapped have been proved by impartial surveys to be at least as reliable, efficient and steady on the job as their non-handicapped colleagues.

Granger is a member of the committee which is sponsoring NEPH Week in San Mateo county.

Primitive Canoes, Modern Motors Are Symbols Of Transition In Culture For West Coast Indian Tribe

U. C. Man Writes On Acculturation Process

Primitive dugout canoes equipped with modern outboard motors serve as a symbol of a culture in transition as well as a present-day means of transportation for a West Coast Indian tribe described in a recent University of California anthropological publication.

The difficulties and conflicts involved in the transformation of a people from stone-tool aborigines to citizens of a 20th-century white civilization in less than a century are depicted by Dr. George A. Pettitt, assistant to the president and lecturer in anthropology on the Berkeley campus, in a new book entitled "The Quileute of La Push, 1775-1945."

Dr. Pettitt's study is a "biography" of one small group of Indians, the Quileute of the State of Washington. It portrays their original culture, outlines their history from the arrival of the whites down to 1945, and describes the present-day conglomeration of new and old culture traits.

Measuring a man's wealth not by what he has but by how much he has given away may not conform to our hardheaded Yankee economic concepts but until recently it was standard procedure for the Quileute and it serves to illustrate the adjustment problem of a people living halfway between two cultures.

The Indian's you-can't-take-it-with-you attitude toward wealth was a part of their traditional culture. Thrift was not a virtue and the accumulation of wealth was not a socially accepted goal unless it was followed by a public giving away of all that had been accumulated. These gift-giving affairs or "potlatches" might impoverish an entire family or tribe, but it brought prestige which could be acquired in no other way.

Along with many of the other old culture traits, "potlatching" has been largely eliminated but the Indians generally have still not wholly accepted the idea of saving for a rainy day.

Dr. Pettitt points out that, in the process of culture change, the Quileute have largely lost the goals that gave purpose to existence in the old culture and have not yet developed or adopted new ones integrated with the purposes of white society.

The anthropologist believes that the problems of acculturation merit attention because they "may throw light on the present and future relations between one people or one social group and another" and that the Quileute process of acculturation is of interest because the problems faced there "relate to the whole program of finding a place for several hundred thousand descendants of the country's original owners.

Chevrolet Service Dept. Head Issues Advice To Motorists

The electrical, lubrication and cooling systems of your automobile must be examined now for the cold weather ahead, and a checkup on the car's safety factors should be made at the same time.

This is the advice of E. L. Harrig, manager of the Chevrolet service and mechanical department, who urges every motorist to visit his dealer or service station in preparation for fall and winter.

"The advent of a new season brings new problems to motorists no matter what the climate of their localities is," says Harrig. "In some parts of the country it means coolness and increased rain; in others, below-zero temperatures. No matter what changes are expected, your car must be prepared."

The fall checkup, as outlined by Harrig, should include:

Examination of battery for potency, and of battery terminals and cables for corrosion and proper contact.

A change to winter-grade lubricants in crankcase, transmission and differential. Complete chassis lubrication.

A check on radiators for protection by anti-freeze liquid, whatever type is used, and on all hose connections to guard against leaks in the cooling system.

Inspection of the electrical system, to make sure spark plugs, cables and ignition system are functioning properly, with no loose wires or worn insulation that may cause trouble during cold weather.

"Every driver should contribute to traffic safety by periodic inspections," Harrig adds. "A safety check should include brake and steering gear inspection, and adjustment if necessary; examination of tires for anti-skid properties, and replacement of worn windshield-wiper blades to provide clear vision under all conditions."

Eleanor Quickert Weds Harley Worthington In S. F.

St. Paulus Church in San Francisco was the locale for the marriage of Miss Eleanor Quickert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Quickert, 2 Peoria street, and Mr. Harley Worthington, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Worthington, 65 Garwood drive, on September 1.

The double ring ceremony was performed at 7:30 in the evening by Reverend Arthur Nitz.

For the ceremony Eleanor donned a ballerina-length dress. Her finger-tip vail was held in place with a coronet of braided velvet. For something old Eleanor wore her grandmother's broach; blue, handkerchief. Her cascade bouquet was composed of baby roses, stephanotis, and forget-me-nots.

Preceding the ceremony her sister Christine sang the "Lord's Prayer."

Three attendants and a flower girl preceded Eleanor and her father down the aisle. Mrs. Norma Quickert as matron-of-honor wore a ballerina-length dress of yellow organza. She carried an arm bouquet of Talisman roses. Christine and Alice, her two sisters, were dressed in green and carried arm bouquets of yellow snapdragons. They, too, wore braids of white velvet in their hair.

The groom's sister Sharon as flower girl wore a yellow taffeta dress and flowered head piece. She carried a basket of snapdragons.

Bestman duties were performed by Alfred Worthington. Ushers were Don Rylander of San Jose and Philip Miller of San Francisco.

For the wedding Mrs. Worthington wore a taupe bolero lace dress with brown accessories and an orchid corsage.

Mrs. Quickert wore a cocoa dress, brown accessories and an orchid corsage.

A reception followed the ceremony at 7434 Mission street. The hall was trimmed all in white with arches placed throughout. The four-tiered cake was set upon a table similarly decorated and set with a lace tablecloth made by the bride's aunt.

The couple now reside in San Francisco.

Scare Call For Police Results In Warning

The over-anxiousness of a girl friend nearly jammed Susan Dobbins, of 78 Belmont drive, in Westlake, with the constabulary hereabouts.

Seems the two gals were gabbing on end over the telephone, when Susan remarked that she heard a noise in the heater. Both became excited, with the G F phoning the cops in South San Francisco to the effect that prowlers were threatening the Dobbins home.

Forthwith, the officers notified Daly City headquarters who in turn sped a police car over to 78 Belmont drive. A search, though, revealed that nothing more than a squeak was at the bottom of it all.

Thereupon, Susan received a quiet but stern explanation of the seriousness of what had transpired, with a demand that she repeat the warning to her girl friend.

James R. Tormey Emphasizes Need To Teach "3 R's"

"Most of the teachers in San Mateo county want the three R's emphasized. A majority of the parents feel the same way, and businessmen are unanimous. The office of the county superintendent of schools should furnish leadership in emphasizing the fundamentals of education," said James R. Tormey, candidate for county superintendent of schools, in a statement issued in response to questions from many parents and teachers.

Mr. Tormey continued, "Last April a strong three R plank was a key part of the platform on which I based my candidacy. This is no campaign gesture on my part. I have worked as a teacher and an administrator of remedial classes and I know first-hand that, effective instruction in reading, writing and arithmetic are essential both in training individuals to earn an adequate living and in developing effective citizens."

BAYSHORE VISITACION VALLEY

By Bernice Hendryx JUniper 4-6449

Another Bayshore election is a thing of the past. The results are in, and here they are. Anthony Beckel and Vincent Morris, incumbents on our Sanitary Board, were elected to another four-year term. Two hundred and ninety-six ballots were cast, with seven absentee ballots. A. Beckel received 184 votes, his running mate, V. Morris, received 171. The job of assessor of the Sanitary District went to Manuel Silva, with 153 votes to his credit.

In my column of last week, I stated that with as many registered voters as we have in this area, the turn-out at the polls is pitifully small. That turnout is made up primarily of the followers of our two political groups in Bayshore. These groups are not distinguished as Republican and Democrat. They are just two factions that have been tooth and nailing it in Bayshore for political supremacy for years and years now. When an election in the valley comes around, dirt is slung around, and it is seldom very clean dirt. This verbal garbage makes the rounds, giving rise to nasty insinuations that many times are taken in good faith by unknowing property owners and voters. The end result in this is that while many of our residents go to the polls on the strength of what they have been told, they afterwards decide that they are better off to leave these two groups well enough alone to fight it out.

Many people, reminded of an election, say they don't want to "get mixed up in" valley politics. This attitude accounts for a large number of non-voters.

We know that our politicians anywhere will toss bricks at one another. Yet, in most cases, those rocks come from good solid mountains of evidence. They aren't the mouthings of hearsay, or the outcroppings of unfounded rumor.

The only remedy in sight for our candidates for office in Baysnore, is a turnout of voters that will prove to the man running for office that he is not dependent upon either political group for sole support. That remedy might also bring forth new candidates for office who are not closely affiliated with these two factions, that at present are sponsoring every candidate that you go to the polls to vote for. Many of our men who are coming up for offices here are not fully aware of the reasons that account for the support they are given. If those reasons were actually laid out, many of them would be taken for a childish squabble on a school ground as to whose turn it was at bat, but that is politics, or so I am told by the politicians.

The PTA is sponsoring the Community Chest drive in Bayshore this year, and has hit on a scheme that it is hoped will be short and successful. A great deal depends upon the response to their appeal for help from you neighbors.

The drive is to be held for one hour, between one and two o'clock on October 1. People have already come forward to take on the bigger jobs. Mrs. Mary Lynch will be residential chairman, with Mrs. Ruby Ackley handling publicity. Jimmie Throne will contact business establishments in the area. Many of you are needed to help in this one-hour drive. Please contact Mrs. Mary Lynch, of 279 Rio Verde, or call JU. 4-5813 and donate one hour of your time to help Bayshore make its quota.

The Harry Hermans returned from a week vacation that left no time for dallying. It covered a visit with the folks in Los Angeles, a quick hop to Tijuana, and three days on Catalina. You can take a deep breath and start resting up now, kids. All you have to do now is work every day.

The Bayshore Baptist Church is having a big Rally Day on Sunday, September 24. Just a time for fellowship with Bayshore neighbors, with the message of " Mission of Holy Spirit." The topic for Sunday evening will be "The Fountain of Redemption."

Our Baptist Reverend Widenham has instituted a group that is a decided asset to the community. Just starting is a Thursday morning visiting group at the parsonage, at 204 Acacia. The ladies gather for prayer meeting and bible study, bringing a sack lunch to round out the morning. The Reverend says that it is being taken up with enthusiasm, both by regular Sunday church attenders and people who find it impossible to attend regular service. The group gathers at 11 a.m. and is open to all comers.

Many of our new PTA officers moved from Bayshore during the summer months, making it necessary to replace rapidly. At the PTA executive board meeting of September 15 these new officers were ratified to fill vacancies: Mrs. Thelma Miller is the new recording secretary, Mrs. Pedkowski is vice-president, Mrs. Bowan is hospitality chairman, and Mrs. Harris is membership chairman. Good luck in the coming year, ladies.

Here's a little item of interest. The San Francisco division of the S.P.C.A. has taken over this area for emergency calls. We still call the sheriff's office in Redwood City, to report stray animals and dog bite cases, but if a dog is struck by an automobile, or for any other reason must be given immediate attention, you can call San Francisco. This will give Bayshore a better service on emergencies, being closer to home.

WESTLAKE WHIRL

by Marian Christians PLaza 5-0946

I think Mrs. Don L. Votaw should have top honors this week for the number of guests at a birthday party. On September 13 Barbara celebrated her ninth birthday and invited 32 of her little friends and 16 mothers. There was a drawing for prizes and plenty of punch, candy, cake and ice cream and favors for everyone.

Mrs. Votaw said she decorated the basement, set up one large table for the youngsters and another for the mothers and entertained the entire group there, and that it was one of the nicest ways she knows to become better acquainted with her neighbors.

Now that we have our street lights, how about those STREET SIGNS and FIRE ALARM BOXES? Sounds as if we were never satisfied!

Don't forget to vote for the school bonds September 29!

Dr. and Mrs. George Gibson, 5 Cliffside drive, have returned from three months in Europe. I hope to have a detailed account of the trip for next week's column.

Donald, aged 6, and David, aged 8, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Busbery, who both claim September 16 as their birthday, celebrated with a luncheon and theatre party for a group of 20 friends.

On Sunday, October 1, the Westlake residents' Community Chest drive will be held from 1 to 2 p.m. One call will be made at each residence at this time and it is hoped the response will be 100 per cent. Volunteers are urgently needed for the canvassing, so will those who are interested in helping please contact Mrs. Leonard Oppenheim, 36 Cliffside drive, PLaza 5-5617.

Saturday afternoon, September 16, Susan Tfotenhauer, oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guido Tfotenhauer, 3 Lake Forest drive, celebrated her seventh birthday. She entertained 14 of her little friends in the beautifully landscaped garden of her parents. There were games, prizes, ice cream cones, cake and "soda pop" for all.

The Gator Club of San Francisco State College held a cocktail party recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Verducci, 118 Wilshire avenue. (Joe, as I'm sure you all know, is S. F. State's well-known football coach.) Dr. J. Paul Leonard, president of the college, several doctors and teachers of the staff, and photographers from the various newspapers were guests. The party was given in celebration of Camera Day at S. F. State College.

Another birthday celebrated Saturday was that of Rene LeTourneau, who was six years old Friday, September 15. A puppet show, favors, ice cream and cake made the afternoon a happy one for Rene's 12 little guests.

Besides Myra, Mr. Laws is survived by his daughter, Laurene Rae, 6, by a previous marriage, and his mother, Mrs. Zellin Laws, of Riverside, California.

Resident here for one year and seven months, Mr. Laws was a furniture salesman, employed by the Union Furniture Co.

THE ROAD THAT LEADS NOWHERE
The road pictured below bears the time-worn marks of many travellers. Apparently it leads to some distant village or serves perhaps as a link between more vital thoroughfares.
But in reality this road does neither. Once, no doubt, it had a destination, but today it fades away into the woods a few miles beyond—a "dead end."
How many lives are like this road? They have promising beginnings, but instead of continuing to worthwhile goals, they wander aimlessly to final dead ends.
The Church teaches us to build useful lives and guides us toward noble achievements and ambitions. Regular attendance at church services gives greater assurance that our pathway of life will not lead us astray. On the contrary, it leads straight to the house of the peaceful mind and the contented heart.
HOLY BIBLE
THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH
The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Supt. Snell Speaks At Woodrow Wilson P. T. A. 1st Meeting

Parents and teachers of the Woodrow Wilson elementary school had an excellent turnout for their first meeting of the fall term on Tuesday, September 19. A short business meeting was followed by introduction of the teachers to the assembled mothers by the principal, Mrs. Hahn.

Entertainment in the form of an accordion solo by Donnie Aiello, a Scotch dance in costume rendered by Jimmy Tate and folk dancing by pupils of Miss Haslett's room, was thoroughly enjoyed by everyone present. Costumes for the young dancers was a PTA project and, in this respect, all mothers interested are invited to attend a sewing bee and social to be held at the home of Mrs. Ralph Wakehouse, 164 Woodrow street, on September 29 at 1:30 p.m.

Owing to the large attendance, it was necessary to divide the group in half in order to accommodate everyone, in viewing the film "Human Beginnings," which was shown by Hugh Falconer, general supervisor of schools fo rthe Jefferson District.

The overflow of mothers at this meeting again points to the inadequacy of the school facilities and served to emphasize the need for more and better equipped classrooms as pointed out by Superintendent James Snell in his fine address to the assemblage on the coming bond election.

PTA members were pleased to welcome Mrs. Painaud, president of the Bayshore PTA, as a guest for the day. The serving of refreshments brought the program to a conclusion.

Ice Cream Record Topples Under Heavy Assault

Zowie — and the super colossal record for punishing ice cream went by the boards at Ice Cream Land, 2159 Junipero Serra boulevard, it was revealed by James M. Denny, the boss man.

Tom Story and his wife, of 224 St. Charles street, stepped in the other P.M. for a soothing and cool plate of vanilla, when he spied the offer of five dollars for high man.

Although he had barely finished his evening repast, Tom announced he would have a go at not only "number one" for the week but the stupendous accomplishment of 23 scoops, held by George Ritter.

The lad behind the counter started lining up large globules of ice cream but almost as fast as he could dig them out, Tom managed to tuck them beneath his belt.

Down they went until twenty scoops had been consumed. Tom took a breather and again was hard at it. In a matter of moments the record had gone by the boards.

With that, Tom's wife injected a gentle reproof, reminding him that he had started on a thoroughly rounded meal. Tom's response was another chunk of ice cream.

At last looking up, he said something about a grand total. When the count was made, it divulged that Tom Story had devoured 28 scoops of ice cream!

"That ought to stand for a while," he mumbled as he headed for the door. "But I'll be back to take anyone able to beat my mark —maybe before."

Meanwhile, Jim Denny announced the "big deal" he has arranged for the student body of Jefferson High school.

By its own choice, five hungry candidates will be selected. Then a contest will be staged to find the youth with the greatest capacity for ice cream.

Denny asserted the winner is in for a real soft touch, in their manner of speaking. He or she will receive free ice cream and milk shakes for an entire month.

Jim added that this is only one of the many bits of fun he has cooking for the youthful customers who haunt his place. He said that in fact, he always will have something competitive going.

EDGEWOOD TERRACE CIVIC ASSOCIATION PLANS EXPANSION

Plans have been prpared for the reorganization of the Edgewood Terrace Civic Association to expand its membership and activities to include all property owners in and around the Hillside Boulevard Area. The group, since its inception, has concluded several outstanding accomplishments toward civic betterment in the community; however, it appears desirable at this time to enlarge the organization to include Hillside Manor and to revise the name to Terrace Manor Civic Association.

With the resultant larger membership it will be possible to secure much wider representation in formulating plans for civic betterment for all residents of both tracts.

From time to time proposals and regulations are brought up which appear detrimental to the best interests of the community property owners. These problems can be met and coped with only through united action.

Some of the more important long range problems to be considered and acted upon in the near future are:

1. To expand the scope of the organization to include property owners in both the Edgewood Terrace and Hillside Manor Tract, and apply the more representative name of the Terrace Manor Civic Association.

2. To overhaul the existing by-laws so that they can be filed with an application for incorporation of the association which will give us a much stronger position in the community.

3. Adopt a long range program of specific projects to which we can all better adapt our efforts in improving civic affairs in the community.

4. Adopt a specific program of social entertainment among the members so that we may all become better acquainted, thus creating an attitude of interest in the association.

A general meeting has been scheduled for Thursday, October 5, at the city hall to complete plans for the new organization, select a slate of officers and get started on January 1, 1951, to which all residents of Edgewood Terrace and Hillside Manor Tracts are invited to attend.

S. F. Cat Show To Be Held In Nov. At Coliseum Bowl

E. V. Durling, the well known newspaper columnist of the King Feature Syndicate, sent his best wishes for the success of the San Francisco Cat Fanciers' Show to be held the 18th and 19th of November at the Coliseum Bowl, according to Mrs. Sue Adams, show manager.

This is the largest show for felines ever to be held on the coast; an all breed show with three specialties.

Mrs. D. Deans-Henderson of Ontario, Canada, will judge the all breed and best cat in the show. Frank Victor of Hollywood will judge the solid color and the silver specialties. Mrs. Frank Bjerring of Hollywood will judge the Siamese group.

The household pets or domestic shorthair have a prominent spot in the limelight, being judged as carefully as their aristocratic highly pedigreed cousins.

A special interest is shown in the coming show as it is to be held in conjunction with National Cat Week.

Donations from the show are to be equally divided between the Saints and Sinners Club for the milk fund for underpriviledged children and the S. P. C. A. for a ward for homeless and ill cats.

PEDESTRIAN CARELESSNESS

CCPT OPPOSES PROP. NO. 1 ON NOVEMBER BALLOT

On the basis of survey report received from district presidents, representative of all communities of the State, the Board of Managers of the California Congress of Parents and Teachers voted unanimously to go on record opposing Proposition No. 1 at their meeting held in San Francisco on September 13-14. Proposition No. 1 is being opposed because of its effect on school finance and other protective services to children. Information packets on both Proposition No. 1 and Proposition No. 6, which legalizes gambling in California, are being mailed to unit presidents and will be distributed from door to door in a concerted effort to get a "NO" vote on both of these measures.

The board also approved two measures which will appear on the agenda of the special session of the Legislature.

Officially on record as having requested this session, the Congress will support a bill proposing technical changes in the allocation of the 250-million dollar bond measure for emergency school housing in crowded areas. These changes have become necessary because of legal errors recently pointed out by the Attorney General which thwart the intent of the measure. It will also support enabling legislation to permit use of Federal funds for the program of aid to needy children. These funds were made available to states by passage of the new Federal Social Security law. Complete information on this Aid to Needy Children program is being channeled to local associations by Mrs. Hal Crow, student welfare chairman.

Ralph's Cleaners Defeat Myra's Of S. F. By 2-1 Score

In one of the most exciting softball games played in the bay area this season, Ralph's Cleaners of Daly City defeated Myra's Place of San Francisco 2 to 1 last Friday night to win the First Annual South San Francisco Invitational Softball Tournament.

The tournament, sponsored by the South San Francisco Recreational department was played on the South City diamond.

Whitey Mecham, Ralph pitcher, although hampered by a torn knee ligament sat down Myra's with two hits, while Ralph's garnered three off San Francisco's leading softball hurler, Mario Victor.

Among the hits was a long home run to deep right-centerfield in the fifth inning by Frankie Ruggerio, Ralph second baseman, to break a scoreless deadlock.

In the first part of the inning Myra's had runners on first and second with two men out when "Big Frank" Gerhow, colorful Ralph centerfielder, brought the fans to their feet with a sensational running catch of a line drive to cut off the two-run threat. In the top of the sixth inning Myra's tied it up when they scored their only run of the night on a long triple by Favor and a fly ball to right field.

In their half of the sixth Ralph's came back to score what proved to be the winning run when "Kid" Luccas, shortstop, singled, stole second and scored on a ground ball to deep short by third baseman Johnny Lucier.

In post-game ceremonies the mayor of South San Francisco congratulated Ralph Torigian, owner - manager of Ralph's Cleaners, and presented him with the winner's trophy.

The tournament brought to an end for the cleaners a season which also included a runner-up birth to Ayoobs Sport shop of San Francisco, winners of the San Francisco Recreational Department Double A Softball league.

Playing in the State tournament earlier this year the Daly City club became the favorite of the fans, who voted them the most colorful team entered.

Gelsi's Lose Tough One To S. F. Athletic Club

Another one of those heartbreaking losses for the Gelsi's team, especially for pitcher Frank Cirimele, who for six frames had a two-hitter with a one-run lead. But then in the last of the sixth, with two men away, the umpire called a man safe on second (a steal play in which he was out a couple of steps) and things began to happen. Three more errors followed the first one and together with four hits spelled six runs for the San Francisco Athletic Club.

Gelsi's boys picked up two more runs and that was all. Neil Pezzola showed brilliant playing at first base. He straightened up quite a few very shakie plays besides getting one hit and scoring one run. A circus catch by the centerfielder Arata saved them from further trouble.

Leo Massoni, back after a couple years lay off, made a good showing.

Next Sunday Louis Valletta will be back, together with Fred Fazzio.

The game Sunday will be at twelve o'clock at Marchbanks park. They will meet the San Francisco Police Department, a team composed of ex-professional players.

Localities are urged to attend Sunday to see a good game. Admission is free.

"Pappy" Waldorf Starts 4th Year As California Coach

Lyn (Pappy) Waldorf, now starting his fourth year as head coach of the California Bears, has amassed the most spectacular winning percentage of any Pacific Coast Conference coach, either past or present.

In his three years at California, Waldorf's percentage standing reads at .906. That figure tops the next high-man on the percentage side, Jeff Cravath of USC, who has amessed a .693 mark since he became head coach at Southern California in 1942.

The Waldorf record at California is a familiar one. In his first year, 1947, a team which had won only two games the year before, went through the season with a 9-1 record. In 1948 they increased the mark, going undefeated in ten games only to succumb by a touchdown in the Rose Bowl. In 1949 it was the same story, only closer. Then the Bears, deprived of a number of first-stringers before the season ever opened, again sailed through the regular season to a 10-0 mark on the shoulders of many boys who were brought up from the jayvee squad. In the Rose Bowl again, the Waldorf coached Bears bowed by three points to Ohio State, 17-14.

The over-all record for Waldorf stands at 29 won out of 32 games played. Only one regular season game lost. For a lifetime mark, Pappy has compiled a .670 winning percentage in 23 years of coaching, 12 of them with Northwestern in the tough Big Ten conference.

Not only does Waldorf lead all present PCC incumbent coaches in the percentage division, but his mark also looms over those established by great coaches of the past. Andy Smith, the immortal coach of the Wonder Teams at California, had an .831 mark. Howard Jones, in his 17 years at Troy, won on a .771 basis. Glenn "Pop" Warner, Stanford's outstanding mentor, had an .816.

In the northern area of the Pacific Coast Conference, Jimmy Phelan's .634 over 12 years with Washington and "Babe" Hollingberry's .641 in 19 years lead the parade.

True, Waldorf hasn't had the span of years in which to get the percentage knocked down, as did Smith, Jones, Warner and a few other outstanding coaches. But, in his three years, Waldorf has definitely established himself as the most successful of all the incumbent coaches.

Longer Season For Duck Hunting Is Approved For Calif.

The U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service has announced 1950 waterfowl hunting regulations for California and the Pacific flyway which allow a slightly longer season and higher daily duck limit than last year.

Although the California Fish and Game Commission joined the Duck Hunters Association of California in asking for higher combination limits, the Federal Service set a daily bag and possession limit of six ducks. The 1949 daily bag limit was five ducks, with a possession limit of ten.

A 44-day split hunting season was set between October 20 and November 10, and from December 15 to January 5. Along the Colorado River, a continuous season was prescribed between November 12 and January 5.

On the opening day of each season, shooting begins at Noon, ending one hour before sunset. For the remainder of each season, firing will start one-half hour before sunrise.

The 1950 bag and possession limits as announced from Washington: ducks, six daily and in possession, but no more than one wood duck; geese, six daily and in possession in any combination not exceeding two Canada geese or its subspecies, white-fronted geese, or brant; mudhens, 15 daily and in possession; American and red-breasted mergansers, 25 daily.

No open season was set for Ross geese or shore birds.

Previous restrictions against repeating or automatic shotguns capable of holding more than three shells remain in effect. Shooting over live decoys or baited waters is also prohibited.

Electrical Show Opens Saturday At Civic Auditorium

Electrical Wonderland, an exposition of modern living, will open a nine-day stand at San Francisco's Civic Auditorium Saturday night. It will be a modern city's push-button version of the County Fair.

A radioactive key, energized in the atomic laboratory at Schenectady and flown to San Francisco in a leaden casket, will open the doors of the Wonderland at 6 p.m. and the show will continue afternoons and evenings through October 1.

High voltage entertainment and fun, daily radio and television shows and exhibits of electric genii at work in magical gimmics like "Electro," the mechanical man, will feature the exposition's daily programs.

All segments of the electric industry — manufacturers, utilities, dealers, lighting engineers, inventors and designers — have joined together in arranging a maze of amazing exhibits at the show to display the marvels of the electric age.

Household appliances of every description, model kitchens and laundries, and demonstrations of the latest devices in push-button living will interest and excite all members of the family.

Opening night will feature a star-studded stage show with Paul Speegle, a favorite funnyman with San Francisco sophisticates, serving as master of ceremonies.

An outstanding historical exhibit at the Wonderland will be the world's largest private collection of the inventions of Thomas A. Edison.

Entertainment exhibits include "The Theater of the Atom" in which atoms are split and exploded; Junior, a walking-talking refrigerator; "Opinion Meter," an electric Gallup poll; a half acre of dazzling equipment in the "Great Hall of Light," and numerous magical gadgets from the General Electric and Westinghouse experimental laboratories.

Other demonstrations include a working model of a micro-wave relay system, jet propulsion, "Sniffer" — the electric nose, "Sparko" —the mechanical dog, and a giant television screen with continuous shows.

Electrical Wonderland is all electric and mostly wondrous.

Previous Records Broken Sunday At Shark Derby

All previous records were broken Sunday as 21,000 spectators watched 1,406 fishermen bring in 2,441 sharks in the fourth annual running of the Shark Derby, only annual shark fishing competition in the United States, held at Coyote Point, San Mateo. High records set in 1949 were 20,000 spectators, 1,247 fishermen and 2,163 sharks.

Belmont fishermen walked off with main honors in the adult class as J. S. Cavanagh, 404 Alameda boulevard, and Mrs. Jean Rutherford, 2119 Coronet street, captured the King fisher and Queenfisher crowns, won by adults over 16 years of age bringing in the heaviest sharks. Cavanagh caught a 24¾-pound shark while Mrs. Rutherford came through with a 17-pounder.

Heaviest fish caught was a 45¼-pound stingray, brought in by Frank Anderson. Greatest number sharks caught by any one person was 32, hooked by Kent B. Diehl. Greatest total sharks hauled in by a father-and-son team was 48 sharks, dragged in by W. Scheller and son.

"Look Before You Shoot" Is Warning Issued To Hunters

With California's five-month series of hunting seasons in full swing, a half-million licensed hunters have been cautioned by the Division of Fish and Game that most field accidents are caused by greed or carelessness.

Last year's improved hunting accident record proves that safety pays. With an all-time high number of nimrods seeking big and small game, only 11 hunters were fatalities, compared to a total of 28 in 1948.

Records kept by the State agency show that most fatal mishaps are caused by rifles, while shotguns inflict the greatest quantity of acidents — most of which are non-fatal, but painful.

The desire of irresponible hunters for the maximum bag limit is a major contributing factor to firearms accidents, it is believed. The indiscriminate shooting at anything that moves in the hope of taking a game bird or animal is a big factor in the annual killing or maiming of scores of sportsmen.

"Look before you shoot!" is the perpetual plea of fish and game personnel and responsible hunters.

Firearms are dangerous weapons, and in the hands of a careless individual, only a split portion of a second is needed to cause injury or death to himself or another. These losses can be prevented.

Good advice from the Division:

1. Time should be taken to see the magazine and chamber are empty before cleaning or handling guns.
2. Unload firearms before placing in a vehicle.
3. Is the target legal game?
4. Treat every gun as if it were loaded.

Veterans Should Check Status Of Their Records Now

With the vacation season past, fall is a good time for veterans in San Mateo county to "take inventory," in the opinion of Floyd D. Granger, veterans service officer.

"In other words," he explains, "veterans ought to fulfill their obligations to themselves and their families by checking up on the status of their records right away, without waiting for emergencies to happen or deadlines to pass unnoticed."

Some of the questions a veteran should ask himself along this line are suggested by Granger as follows:

Is my discharge recorded? It costs nothing, and may save untold time, trouble and disappointment later.

Is my Government life insurance up to date as to names of beneficiaries, type of plan, etc.?

Is the correct current information about my military service and my veteran status on file with the Veterans Service Office, Courthouse, Redwood City?

Am I going to make any use of any remaining entitlement I may have under the GI Bill of Rights to education or training? The cut-off date on this benefit is July 25, 1951, for most veterans.

Information and assistance on any of these matters or on others involving State or federal benefits to veterans and their dependents is available at the Veterans Service Office, in the Courthouse, Redwood City.

WASHINGTON REPORT

By CONGRESSMAN NIXON

One of the last actions taken by the House before this week's recess was to pass a bill curbing the activities of Communists in the United States.

The margin of passage, 354 to 20, demonstrated that Congress is in no mood to spend American Marshall Plan dollars to combat communism in Europe, send American boys to fight communism in Korea and at the same time ignore the fact that agents of Soviet Russia within our boundaries are working day and night to weaken the United States against the aggressions of their masters in the Kremlin.

The bill that was passed by the House is similar to the Mundt, Ferguson, Johnston bill now in the Senate. Indications are that, before final adjournment of this session, Congress will have given its final approval to an effective communist control law, and that a veto by the President will be overridden, if necessary.

What the Bill Does

This legislation strikes at the foreign controlled communist fifth column, and not at communism as an idea. The major provisions of the bill are as follows:

1. Loopholes in our espionage laws are plugged up so that those who transmit information affecting the security of the nation to agents of a foreign power will not be able, as at present, to avoid prosecution.

2. The communist party, communist party members, and communist front organizations are required to register with the Attorney General where it is established that they are under a foreign controlled international organization.

3. Members of communist organizations are denied employment in the federal government and in defense plants, and also are prohibited from obtaining passports to travel abroad.

4. Communist organizations are prohibited from concealing their true identity by requiring them to label their mailing, broadcasting and televising as the product of a communist organization.

What the Bill Does Not Do

1. It does not outlaw the Communist Party. The most common misconception concerning the Mundt - Nixon Bill and similar measures is that it would outlaw the Communist Party. This is not the case. Once an organization has registered with the Attorney General and thereby does not conceal its foreign domination, it can operate without criminal penalties attaching to its members.

2. The bill is not directed at so-called theoretical Communism. The test in each case is whether the organization is controlled from abroad by the Soviet Government or by the international Communist organization.

3. The bill is not directed against so-called "liberal" organizations. In fact, under this bill, organizations which are not communist-controlled will have far greater protection than they have now. At present, the Attorney General from time to time, issues lists of subversive organizations without granting the organizations hearings or an opportunity to present the case in their behalf. In addition, various un-American Activities committees of the federal and state governments as well as private organizations issue their findings as to communist-controlled organizations. By the pasage of this bill this whole problem will be taken out of the realm of name-calling, and standards will be set up which will give needed protection to organizations charged with being communist dominated. Under the bill an organization has the right to a hearing, to present witnesses i nits own behalf, to cross-examine witnesses for the government and to appeal to the courts from the finding of the Board. On appeal, the court must find that a preponderance of the evidence sustains the finding of the Administrative Board.

Forty-five Trophy Cups Are Awards For Photo Winners

Forty-five trophy cups will be awarded to winners at the Second Annual Photography Day to be held Sunday, October 1, at Sigmund Stern Grove.

This event is sponsored jointly by the Northern California Council of Camera Clubs and the San Francisco Recreation and Park Department.

Four divisions will be judged for the awards — snap shots, color slides, advanced pictorialists, and inter-club competition.

The San Francisco Recreation-Park Department Perpetual Trophy will be awarded to the club that wins the Interclub Competition. Award will be based on the most points received by the club for the ten best prints entered.

Closing date for entries is September 27.

Democrats Start Petitions To Abolish Cross Filing By Candidates

A committee to circulate petitions to abolish cross filing was named Monday at a meeting of the San Mateo County Democratic Central Committee.

According to Marion H. Kent, this move is part of a statewide program by the Democratic party to carry out the pledge made at the state convention held recently in Sacramento. An initiative petition has already been prepared, titled and summarized by the Attorney General. It will require 127,920 valid signatures of registered voters.

The text of the petition is, "Cross filing is hereby prohibited. No person shall become a candidate or nominee of any political party for any office unless he has been continuously registered as a member of that party for at least three months immediately prior to the filing of nomination papers for the office he seeks. Any law in conflict with this act is hereby repealed."

County Chairman Kent said, "It is the business of San Mateo voters who want to end this destructive and un-American device of cross filing to support this movement and sign these petitions. Cross filing allows a small minority of the people to elect candidates in the primaries without permitting the larger number of voters on election day any real voice in selecting the officials they want."

Other matters decided upon during the meeting were the adoption of a master plan for getting out the vote in November and the naming of a committee to raise funds for the campaigns of James Roosevelt, Pat Brown and Helen Gahagan Douglas.

Nixon Opens Drive For Seat In U. S. Senate

Congressman Richard Nixon, candidate for the U. S. Senate, will make an intensive campaign throughout northern California between now and election day.

This week, he opened his final drive at a mass meeting Monday, September 18, in San Francisco.

Nixon's northern California headquarters announced that he had received "by an overwhelming vote" the important endorsement of the San Francisco Veterans Political Council comprising members of all major veterans' organizations.

Nixon is scheduled for a series of meetings September 21-22 in Sacramento and September 23 in San Joaquin county.

Opens Campaign

EDWARD S. SHATTUCK
for Attorney-General

Edward S. Shattuck fired the opening gun in his campaign for the office of California's Attorney General when he made calls in Daly City and the northern San Mateo County area last week.

He expects to make an extensive campaign throughout the State prior to the November election.

Excellence of Colusa sandstone as a building material is illustrated by the fact San Francisco's Ferry Building, built in 196, the first use of the Colusa stone, shows only minor weathering effects today.

T. B. Association Calls For More Volunteer Help

A renewed plea for volunteer workers was made today by the San Mateo County Tuberculosis and Health Association when the supply of volunteers answering an August call for workers proved inadequate to meet the expanded, war-time program of the local agency.

Ruth Close, executive secretary of the association, said that response to the previous call was excellent, but has subsequently been exhausted by increasing demands of the work being done by the association.

She stated that volunteers in all categories are needed and that there is an especial need for volunteers who can serve as file clerks, receptionists, and in skilled and unskilled office work. Chest X-ray clinic clerks to write up cards are needed in every community if the chest X-ray program is to be carried on at the present service.

Persons having as little as half a day per week to devote to the volunteer service will be welcomed, she said.

The association is nearing the peak of its free, Christmas seal X-ray program with resumption of school classes and added work is provided by new services to those about to enter the armed forces and to veterans.

Most volunteer work is done in the association's offices in San Mateo, but outside volunteers are in special need in connection with the impending 1950 sale of Tuberculosis Christmas seals.

San Mateo Mayor Endorses Tormey For Supt. of Schools

James R. Tormey, candidate for County Superintendent of Schools of San Mateo county, has just received the enthusiastic endorsement of Mayor Daniel J. Creedon of San Mateo. Mayor Creedon, in addition to being head of the San Mateo city government, is active in civic affairs and in the practice of the law. Mr. Tormey is pleased to have the approval of one more of the many prominent officials in San Mateo county who are openly and actively advocating his election. Mayor Creedon's endorsement follows:

"I have known James Tormey, who is seeking your vote in November for the position of County Superintendent of Schools, for over fifteen years. During that time Jim has undoubtedly accomplished more in the furtherance of the educational program of San Mateo county than any educator active in our local school system.

"His experience covers a wide range of students varying from pre-school to adult education. In this work he has come in contact with thousands of students of all ages covering the entire county, and invariably they are for him. This work alone fits him to take charge of county schools, for no other person I know of has had better experience.

"Mr. Tormey's accomplishments, however, are in the record, and it is not because of those alone that I am giving my wholehearted support to his campaign. It is because I know him as a person and realize that he is a man with a devotion to his work, who is constantly learning and then transmitting the benefit of his knowledge conscientiously in the programs he undertakes.

"He is a man with a tremendous sense of civic responsibility, and you may be sure that in his program as County Superintendent of Schools he will be sensitive to the needs of public education in the county of San Mateo, and will meet those needs in an intelligent, progressive and impartial manner."

Christen Two At O. L. P. H. Church

A double christening was held last Sunday at Our Lady of Perpetual Help church. Christened were three-month-old Gary Michael Ghiotti, son of Mr. and Mrs. Attilio Ghiotti, 1356 Sweetwood drive, and six-week-old Stephen Donald Talcott, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Talcott, 816 Ellis drive. The ceremony was performed by Father Adrian McKenna, who in August of '49 united in marriage Mr. and Mrs. Ghiotti.

Following the christening ceremonies dinner was served to the following guests: Fred Becker and Mrs. Domonic Ghiotti, paternal grandparents; Mrs. Norma Dunne and Mr. and Mrs. Don Talcott.

PITY THE POOR MILLIONAIRE

By Ridgely Cummings

Considering his proletarian background, that guy Cummings really gets around.

I spent last week end among the millionaires, at a summer resort called Devil's Lake, in the Irish Hills of Michigan some ninety miles south and west of Detroit.

My host was a big wheel in the auto industry. I won't mention his name because I want to quote him on politics and the labor situation a little later on in this piece and it would violate his hospitality to quote him without permission and identify him too. Probably I could get permission, for he believed very sincerely in what he was saying, but then I might have to pull my descriptive punches and it is simpler this way.

The Wheel was lousy with money, servants and gadgets. The thing that impressed me most was that he owns five boats at that particular estate. Imagine, not one, not two, but five.

There was a fishing boat, a canoe, a sail boat, a motor boat and a speed boat. He let me take the wheel of the speedboat and if I were a moneybags I think I would buy one myself. There is a curious and gratifying sense of power that comes from opening the throttle wide, feeling the stern of the boat settle down and the bow rise as the propeller bites deep.

She kicked up a high wake and I swung her in curves and turns, grinning in the wind and crossing and criss-crossing our wake until the people in the back protested at the rough ride I was giving them.

Dining at Club

We had dinner at the country club, with steaks the size of a tennis racket two inches thick, and other luxuries and I enjoyed them, but found myself thinking that the rich aren't much happier than the rest of us.

They can eat only one meal at a time, can wear only one outfit of clothes, can manage only one highball glass in a quarter of an hour, wouldn't enjoy sticking two cigarettes in their mouth at once, and do they have worries!!! They do.

Their two pet worries, as near as I could determine during my brief sojourn, are unions and taxes.

Walter Reuther, prexy of the auto workers union, is their bete noir and Truman and his Fair Dealers are only a little bit worse.

I talked with a number of these captains of industry during the hours around the country club, or rather they talked to me. I needled them a little bit in a nice way by asking questions, but didn't argue because their blood pressures were high enough already.

These magnates are not stupid. They don't know or care anything about literature or art, but they are well-informed on business and politics, incisive and bitter in their remarks but usually logical once one admits their premises, seldom descending to emotional diatribes.

Those I met seemed unanimous in fearing that the Democratic party is developing into an economic dictatorship. Naturally they were all Republicans.

Fear Slave State

My host put it rather neatly. He said: "These industrial unions are a monopoly. You can't have democracy when you have a monopolistic labor supply fighting competitive industrial enterprises. A dictatorship of labor destroys free industry. It's the same way with taxes. The percentage of taxes a man pays indicates his percentage of slavery."

The Wheel claimed industrial unions are against collective bargaining and for class warfare. He cited as proof an incident at the conclusion of a recent auto strike when Reuther refused to shake hands with a representative of management while photographers were present for fear that his union members think he was not tough enough with the bosses.

Others agreed and told stories of gunmen, bodyguards, terrorism against the rank and file union members, bureaucratic administration of union affairs and other evidence of what they believed was the beginning of a slave state.

I had just been reading George Orwell's "194," a signifcant book which incidentally is available in the two-bit edition and which I strongly recommend. Although it was apparent these men had never heard of Orwell it was remarkable that much of their thinking and fears ran parallel to his. The difference of course was that Orwell would have been afraid of my hosts and they were afraid of organized labor and a power-hungry government.

Now that I'm back to my customary standard of living and turning the experience of the week end over in my mind, I wonder if there is not much to be said for the fears of both Orwell and mine host. Thank goodness I'm not a millionaire and don't have anything to worry about.

Hey, what am I saying?

S. F. Bay Region

The San Francisco Bay Region, 10 to 15 years hence, is graphically portrayed by Telesis, now on exhibition at the San Francisco Museum of Art in the Civic Center in San Francisco.

Pondering where to put the next million people who are expected to migrate to the San Francisco Bay Region, Telesis has come up with a carefully planned design to provide them with housing, transportation, water supply, recreation facilities and water and air pollution control, taking full advantage of the potentialities of the nine Bay Region counties.

A featurre of the exhibit is a 10x16-foot scale model of how the Bay Area can look in the future under careful, coordinated area-wide planning.

Telesis is a group of Bay Area architects, city planners, landscape architects and others interested in planned development of the region. "Space for Living," the 1940 Telesis exhibit, drew an attendance of 25,000 persons.

DON'T REDUCE PRESSURE

Air pressure in automobile tires should not be reduced when the tires are hot, in an effort to compensate for expansion due to fast driving during warm weather, warns the California State Automobile Association. A pressure increase of six to eight pounds may be expected under such conditions. If air pressure is reduced when tires are hot, they will be underinflated when cool.

SMJC Adult Center Offers Evening Program

With the day college already at full operation, San Mateo Junior College is now starting its adult center, the program for men and women of the Peninsula who may wish day or evening classes. Last year over six thousand adults took part in the evening program. Registration is carried on by day at the Baldwin campus of the college in downtown San Mateo, and on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings at the same place.

Over two hundred different sections are offered this year, the largest program the college adult center has attempted.

Meanwhile the day students have their classwork well started. They have also welcomed the new students with a dance at the Baldwin campus gym, and are getting their sports season underway.

Fifty-five men are practicing daily on the football field under the direction of Coach Herb Hudson. The first game is at Marin College at Kentfield on September 29 at night. The Mateans play two other non-conference foes, Glendale College up here and John Muir College in the Rose Bowl. Six conference games round out the season.

Monday evening, Community Hall will present an illustrated lecture on Belgium and Switzerland in the college auditorium at seven-thirty. The public is invited without charge.

Vienna Art Treasures Close In Two Weeks

The world-famous $80,000,000 Vienna Art Treasures exhibition now at the De Young Museum in Golden Gate Park, will leave the San Francisco galleries after October 1, bound for the Chicago Art Institute, prior to its return to Austria.

Thus, less than two weeks remain for visitors to view the incomparable collection of paintings by Old World masters such as Rubens, Hals, Van Dyck, Rembrandt and many others. Other features of the show include priceless sixteenth century Brussels' tapestries, glittering arms and armor of Europe's princes, knights and kings, and jewel-studded examples of the goldsmith's art, including the Benvenuto Cellini salt cellar, the only example of his gold work in existence. This piece is valued at over $500,000 as are other gem-encrusted works.

Hours for the Vienna Art Treasures exhibition are from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. on weekdays, except on Wednesday evenings, when the De Young galleries are being kept open until 10 p.m. Saturdays and Sundays the hours are from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m.

BAKING SODA CLEANS

One of the few fortunate things about corrosion at the battery terminals, declares the National Automobile Club, is that the remedy nearly always is handy. The can of baking soda from the pantry is the remedy referred to in this case. Sprinkle a little of the soda on the corroded part, pour a little water on top of it, and watch the corrosion disappear. It's so easy that a motorist's failure to apply it becomes more of a mystery all the time.
